Document Formatting Standards Effective July 1, 2009

1. Pages printed only on one side and not permanently bound (but pages may be stapled).
2. A font size no smaller than 10 point.
3. Documents that are legible and of sufficient color and clarity.
4. Twenty-pound "white" paper (which is standard copy grade) or better.
5. Signatures in blue or black ink.
6. The corresponding names shall be typed or stamped below the signatures.
7. Seals or stamps that do not obscure with the printing or writing on the instrument.
8. The first page of the instrument must have a three inch (3") top margin and at least three-quarter inch (3/4") side and bottom margins. All subsequent pages must have at least three-quarter inch (3/4") margins on the top, sides, and bottom. The Instrument must also have the Attorney's Bar Number, if it is prepared by an Attorney.
9. If an instrument contains the following data, that data must be reflected on the first page:
 - a. The name, physical business mailing address and business or employment telephone number of the individual who prepared the document and of every grantor, grantee, borrower, beneficiary, trustee or other party to the instrument,
 - b. Return Address,
 - c. Title of the Instrument,
 - d. Any address and telephone number required by Section 27-3-51, Mississippi Code of 1972,
 - e. The legal description of the property or indexing instruction per Section 89-5-33\(3\). If there is insufficient space on the first page for the entire legal description or the entire indexing instruction, immediately succeeding pages shall be used.
10. The following documents or instruments are exempt from the format requirements of this section:
 - a. A document or instrument that was executed before July 1, 2009.
 - b. A military separation document or instrument.
 - c. A document or instrument executed outside the United States.
 - d. A certified copy of a document or instrument issued by a court or governmental agency including a vital record.
 - e. A document or instrument where one of the original parties is deceased or otherwise incapacitated.
 - f. A document or instrument formatted to meet court requirements.
 - g. A federal tax lien.
 - h. A filing under the Uniform Commercial Code.

The law provides that non-conforming documents will be recorded, but will be subject to a $10 additional fee.
