15. To appoint and employ, with or without compensation, any accountants, attorneys at law, investment counsel, agents, servants or other persons, including their agents and associates, and to dismiss or discharge the same and to appoint or employ any others in their stead as my true and lawful attorneys, to appear and represent me as to all matters covered by this power of attorney, or for any other purpose, including, but not limited to, appearances before the Treasury Department of the United States, the Tax Court of the United States, the United States Court of Claims, or any other court of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any state, municipal or foreign court, and any department or official of the United States government or any state, municipal or foreign government, with full power and authority to such agents and attorneys to do any and all acts convenient or appropriate in connection with such matters, including the specific acts described above, and to substitute attorneys and agents subsequent to the date of such appointment and prior to any revocation thereof, and to delegate and revoke the authority so granted to them.

16. To pay, as my attorney shall think fit, any debts or interest payable by me, or taxes, assessments and expenses due and payable or to become due and payable for my use and benefit or for the use and benefit of any person whom I have a legal obligation to support.

17. To transfer, assign and convey any property or interest in property which I may own to any trust of which I am a beneficiary and under the terms of which I expressly have the power, exercisable alone or with others, to amend or revoke such trust, whether such trust was created before or after the execution of this power of attorney.

18. To pay my pledges to and make such gifts as I have regularly made to charitable organizations described in Section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws and to make such gifts to persons, or for their benefit, as I have regularly made.

19. To give gifts of real or personal property in an amount not to exceed the annual federal exclusion from taxation of $10,000.00 per beneficiary, to any, or all of my lineal descendants and their spouses, as my attorney considers appropriate in his discretion.

20. Finally (without prejudice to and in enlargement of the authority above conferred) to execute each and every instrument, undertake each and every obligation, and to take from item to time any and all action of whatsoever nature and with relation to any matters whatsoever, whether or not specifically mentioned herein, and to exercise in respect thereto as full and complete power and discretion as I myself might or could do.

The powers and authorities granted herein shall not be affected, impaired or exhausted by any non-exercise thereof or by any one or more exercises thereof. My attorney shall exercise or fail to exercise the powers and authorities granted herein in each case as my attorney, in my attorney's own absolute discretion, deems desirable or appropriate under existing circumstances. I hereby ratify and confirm as good and effectual, at law or in equity, all that my attorney, and any agents or attorneys appointed by my attorney, and their agents, associates and substitutes, may do by virtue hereof. However, despite the above provisions, nothing herein shall be construed as imposing a duty on my attorney to act or assume responsibility for any matters referred to above or other matters, even though my attorney may have power or authority hereunder to do so.

If any power or authority hereby sought to be conferred upon my attorney should be invalid or unexercisable for any cause or not recognized by any person or organization dealing with my attorney, the remaining powers and authorities given to my attorney hereunder shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect.

This power of attorney shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by my incompetence, incapacity or disability, it being my intent that the power granted herein shall continue without interruption until my death unless previously revoked by me or until such time as I am adjudged incompetent or a disabled person by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any person dealing with my attorney may rely without inquiry upon his/her certification that this power of attorney has not been revoked.

No person relying upon this power of attorney shall be required to see to the application and disposition of any moneys, stocks, bonds, securities or other property paid to or delivered to my attorney, or my attorney's substitute, pursuant to the provisions hereof.

This power of attorney shall be governed by the laws of the State of Mississippi and shall be effective from and after the date hereof.
