accordance with the instructions of my attorney-in-fact as authorized in this document, I hereby represent, warrant and agree that:

A. Reliance on Attorney-in-fact's Authority and Representations. No person who relies in good faith upon the authority of my attorney-in-fact under this document shall incur any liability to me, my estate, my heirs, successors or assigns. In addition, no person who relies in good faith upon any representation my attorney-in-fact may make as to (a) the fact that my attorney-in-fact's powers are then in effect, (b) the scope of my attorney-in-fact's authority granted under this document, (c) my competency at the time this document is executed, (d) the fact that this document has not been revoked, or (e) the fact that my attorney-in-fact continues to serve as my attorney-in-fact, shall incur any liability to me, my estate, my heirs, successors or assigns for permitting my attorney-in-fact to exercise any such authority.

B. No Liability for Unknown Revocation or Amendment. If this document is revoked or amended for any reason, I, my estate, my heirs, successors and assigns will hold any person harmless from any loss suffered or liability incurred as a result of such person acting in good faith upon the instructions of my attorney-in-fact prior to the receipt by such person of actual notice of such revocation or amendment

The powers conferred upon my attorney-in-fact by this document may be exercised by my attorney-in-fact alone and my attorney-in-fact's signature or act under the authority granted in this document may be accepted by persons as fully authorized by me, and with the same force and effect as if I were personally present, competent, and acting on my own behalf. Consequently, all acts lawfully done by my attorney-in-fact hereunder are done with my consent and shall have the same validity and effect as if I were personally present and personally exercised the powers myself, and shall inure to the benefit of and bind me, my estate, my heirs, successors, assigns, and personal representatives.

D. Resort to Courts. I hereby authorize my attorney-in-fact to seek on my behalf and at my expense:

(i) A declaratory judgment from any court of competent jurisdiction interpreting the validity of this document or any of the acts authorized by this document, but such declaratory judgment shall not be necessary in order for my attorney-in-fact to perform any act authorized by this document; or

(ii) A mandatory injunction requiring compliance with my attorney-in-fact's instructions by any person obligated to comply with instruments given by my attorney-in-fact; or

(iii) Actual and punitive damages against any person obligated to comply with instructions given by my attorney-in-fact who negligently or willfully fails or refuses to follow such instructions.

3. Miscellaneous Provisions. The following additional provisions shall apply to this document:

B. Execute Documents and Incur Costs in Implementing the Above Powers. My attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to sign, execute, deliver and acknowledge any contract or other document that may be necessary, desirable, convenient or proper in order to exercise any of the powers described in this document and to incur reasonable costs in the exercise of any such powers.

C. Governing Law. This document shall be governed by the laws of the State of Tennessee in all respects, including its validity, construction, interpretation, and termination. I intend for this Durable Power of Attorney to be honored in any jurisdiction where it may be presented and for any such jurisdiction to refer to Tennessee law to interpret and determine the validity of this document and any of the powers granted under this document.

D. Revocation and Amendment. I retain the right to revoke or amend this document and to substitute other attorneys-in-fact. Amendments to this document shall be made in writing by me personally and they shall be attached to the original of this document.

E. Resignation of Attorney-in-Fact. My attorney-in-fact may resign by the execution of a written resignation delivered to me.

In addition, the incapacity of my attorney-in-fact shall be deemed a resignation by such individual as attorney-in-fact. For purposes of this paragraph, a person's incapacity shall be deemed to exist when the person's incapacity has been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction, or when a conservator for such person has been appointed, or upon presentation of a certificate executed by two (2) physicians licensed to practice in the state of such person's residence which states the physicians' opinion that the person is incapable of caring for herself and is physically or mentally incapable of managing her personal or financial affairs. The effective date of such incapacity shall be the date of the decree adjudicating the incapacity, the date of the decree appointing the conservator, or the date of the physicians' certificate, as the case may be.

F. Photocopies. My attorney-in-fact is authorized to make photocopies of this document as frequently and in such quantity as my attorney-in-fact shall deem appropriate. All photocopies shall have the same force and effect as any original. I specifically direct my attorney-in-fact to have a photocopy of this document placed in my medical records if such a copy does not already constitute a part of my medical records.

G. Severability. If any part of any provision of this document shall be invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such part shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity only, without in any way affecting the remaining parts of such provision or the remaining provisions of this document.

H. Exculpation. My attorney-in-fact and my attorney-in-fact's estate, heirs, successors and assigns are hereby released and forever discharged by me, my estate, my heirs, successors and assigns from all liability and from all claims or demands of all kinds arising out of the acts or omissions of my attorney-in-fact, except for willful misconduct or gross negligence.

4. Ratification. I hereby ratify and confirm each act done or caused to be done by my attorney-in-fact in and about the premises by virtue of this power of attorney.

5. Inducement. For the purpose of inducing any party to act in accordance with the powers granted in this power of attorney, I hereby warrant that if this power of attorney is terminated for any reason whatsoever, I and my successors will save such party harmless from any loss suffered or liability incurred by such party in acting in accordance with this power of attorney prior to the time on which any person has actual notice of such revocation or termination. Any party may rely upon a photocopy of this Power without production of the original.

6. Durability. This power of attorney shall not be affected by any disability, incompetence, or incapacity which I may suffer at any future time or times, whether or not the same shall be adjudicated by any court, it being my intent that the authorizations and powers granted herein shall remain exercisable notwithstanding any such subsequent occurrence, and that this power of attorney shall be construed to satisfy the Tennessee Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act, TCA Section 34-6-101 et seq.

7. Exculpation. Under no circumstances shall my attorney-in-fact incur any liability to me for acting or refraining from acting hereunder, except for such attorney's own willful misconduct or gross negligence.

8. Revocation. This power of attorney shall remain in full force and effect until it is revoked by written notice delivered to my attorney-in-fact. If this instrument has been recorded in the public records, then the instrument of revocation shall be recorded in the same public records.

9. Attorney's Signature. The following is a specimen of the signature of my initial attorney-in-fact:

John Morris

10. No Guardian. By executing this instrument upon the advice of legal counsel, I have carefully and deliberately created the means and manner by which I desire that my person and property be cared for, managed and protected in the event that I shall become unable to execute such responsibilities myself. Accordingly, it is my intention and my desire that I herewith express in the strongest possible terms that no guardian or conservator be appointed for me so long as there is an attorney-in-fact named in this instrument who is willing and able to act and serve under this instrument. I request that any court of competent jurisdiction that receives and is asked to act upon a petition for the appointment of a guardian or conservator for me give the greatest possible weight to my intention and desires as expressed herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed this power of attorney this the 11th day of APRIL, 2005.
