This conveyance is made in trust, however, to secure the payment of $ 60,578.93, evidenced by the following promissory notes of even date herewith:

One promissory note of even date herewith made by the parties of the first part herein; payable to the order of Southern Security Federal Credit Union, together with interest thereon at the rate of 7.20 percent per annum from date hereof until maturity, payable in 182 bi-weekly installments at $425.02, beginning on the 9th day of November, 1993, and a like amount bi-weekly thereafter until paid in full. The privilege is reserved and given to make additional payments on the principal balance on the due date of any installments prior to maturity without penalty.

and any further sums which the party of the third part, or any holder or holders of the notes hereby secured may advance to take care of taxes, insurance, or prior encumbrances on the above described real estate, or any part thereof.

The party of the first part agrees to keep the improvements on said property in a good state of repair, and to insure the same against loss by fire and tornado in some responsible insurance company approved by the party of the third part, or his assigns, for the insurable value thereof, with a regulation mortgagee's subrogation clause attached to each policy making said insurance payable in case of loss to the party of the third part as his interest may appear, and to deliver the policy or policies and renewal receipts therefor to said party of the third part. In case of the failure of the party of the first part to keep said buildings so insured, the party of the third part, or his assigns, may effect such insurance and the amount so paid, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from date of payment to date of reimbursement, shall become a part of the indebtedness secured hereby.

The sale of said real estate shall be made at the front door of any Court House in the County where any of said real estate is situated at the time of the sale, within legal hours, at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, after the acting trustee has given notice of the time, place and terms of said sale according to the laws of the State of Mississippi governing sales of lands under trust deeds in force at the time the publication of said notice is begun. The acting trustee may sell said property without taking possession of the same, and is authorized to appoint an agent and auctioneer to make such sale in his absence, which sale shall be as valid as if made by said trustee.

From the proceeds of said sale the acting trustee shall first pay the cost of executing this trust, including a reasonable fee for himself and his attorney; then he shall pay any sums advanced by the party of the third part on account of taxes or insurance on said property; then he shall pay any balance of principal and interest which shall be due on the indebtedness secured hereby; and if any balance then remains in his hands he shall pay the same to the party of the first part, his heirs or assigns.

The party of the third part, or any holder of the above described notes, may at any time appoint another Trustee in the place and stead of the party of the second part, or any successor or successors in trust.
