If the said party of the first part shall pay said indebtedness when due, and shall pay such sums as shall be necessary to discharge taxes and maintain insurance and repairs and the costs, fees and expenses of making, enforcing and executing this trust, when they shall severally be due and payable, then this conveyance shall become void, and the owner of the indebtedness shall execute proper deed of release or enter marginal satisfaction on the record of this deed of trust, or in the alternative, the Trustee may reconvey by quit claim the property herein described, at expense of said party of the first part.

The proceeds of any sale shall be applied as follows: first to the payment of the expenses of making, maintaining and executing this trust, the protection of the property, including the expense of any litigation and attorney's fees, and the usual commissions to the Trustee; second, to the payment of indebtedness herein secured or intended so to be, without preference or priority of any part over any other part, and any balance of said indebtedness remaining unpaid shall be the subject of immediate suit; and, third, should there be any surplus, the Trustee will pay it to the party of the first part or his assigns. In the event of death, refusal, or inability to act hereunder for any cause of the Trustee named herein, or of any successor trustee, or for any other reason satisfactory to the owner of any of said indebtedness, the owner or owners of the majority of the outstanding indebtedness aforesaid are authorized either in their own name or through an attorney or attorneys in fact appointed for that purpose by written instrument duly registered, to name and appoint a successor or successors to execute this trust, such appointment to be evidenced by writing, duly acknowledged; and when such writing shall have been registered, the substituted trustee named therein shall thereupon be vested with all the right and title, and clothed with all the power of the Trustee named herein and such like power of substitution shall continue so long as any part of the debt secured hereby remains unpaid. The party of the first part, for himself, his heirs, successors, representatives and assigns, covenants and agrees that at any time after default in payment of any of the indebtedness hereby secured, or upon failure to perform any of the covenants to be kept and performed by him, said Trustee may enter upon and take possession of said property and collect the rents and profits therefrom with payment of such to the trustee after default being full acquittance to the tenant, but the Trustee shall be required to account only for the net rents, received by him; and from and after the conveyance of said property under this Deed of Trust, the party of the first part, and all persons under him shall, at the option of the purchaser, be and become the tenant at will of the purchaser, at a reasonable monthly rental, commencing with the date of delivery of the Trustee's Deed.

In the event that more than one Trustee be named herein, any one of such Trustees shall be clothed with full power to act when action hereunder shall be required, and to execute any conveyance of said property. In the event that more than one Trustee be named herein and the substitution of a trustee shall become necessary for any reason, the substitution of one trustee in the place of those or any of those named herein shall be sufficient. The term "Trustee" shall be construed to mean "Trustees" whenever the sense requires. The necessity of the Trustee herein named, or any successor in trust, making oath or giving bond, is expressly waived.

No waiver by the party of the second part or by the holder of the indebtedness secured hereby shall be construed as a waiver of a subsequent similar default or any other default by the party of the first part.

The singular number may be construed as plural, and the plural as singular, and pronouns occurring herein shall be construed according to their proper gender and number, as the context of this instrument may require.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the party of the first part has executed this instrument on the day and year first above written,
